

Dear Praying Friends,

November / December 2012

Merry Christmas from our family to yours! Aubrie and I pray that you have a wonderful, Christ-filled year, and that God would do even greater things through you than ever before.

Deputation & Family Update

This year, we have travelled over 40,000 miles, been in 156 churches, and seen our support grow to nearly 60% (almost all of which has come in since January!). We welcomed Anabel into our family back in May, and have welcomed many into our spiritual family that have been saved along the way. Praise Jesus!

It is always humbling to me as we travel that anybody would let me preach and share our ministry to Colombia. Then to think that many give so sacrificially so that we can go, it is amazing. Thank you, to all of you that have given, prayed, kept in touch and helped us along our way. You have blessed this family! I think of Paul's words in Philippians 4:16-19: "Ye sent once and again unto my necessity. Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account...But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

Amira and Anabel are both healthy and growing. Anabel just had her dosage reduced to twice a day for the tumor they started treating back in August. It has all but vanished, and her doctors are impressed at her progress. Just a few months of treatments left. Thanks to those that have prayed for her.

From The Mouth Of Babes

Speaking of Anabel, she is babbling a lot, and occasionally says "mama" but so far has refused to say "dada." I'd be dishonest to say I'm not at least a little jealous. :)

Colombian Culture Corner

In Spanish, to wish somebody a Merry Christmas, say "Feliz Navidad" (fell-EECE nah-bee-DAHD). If you're feeling particularly adventurous, you could add "y prospero año nuevo" (EE pro-SPEHR-o AHN-yo nu-EH-bo) -- "and have a prosperous new year."

Think On These Things

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." (John 3:16, 36). Have you believed on Jesus? Have you been saved? That is the whole reason we celebrate Christmas. Please contact us if you have questions about salvation. It's the most important decision you can ever make. Please don't put it off!

I've included our Christmas card. Once again, thank you for staying up to date with us, for the prayers and faithful support. God bless!
